PHOTO RELEASE: THE NEW YORK STATE OFFICE OF CANNABIS MANGEMENT PARTICIPATES IN THE CORNELL HIGH-CANNABINOID CANNABIS SATIVA FIELD DAY

OCM Social and Economic Equity Team Shares Program Updates with New York Growers

Statewide Collaboration Supports Innovation, Education, and Agricultural Best Practices

GENEVA, NY — The New York State Office of Cannabis Management (OCM) joined growers, researchers, and industry leaders yesterday at the Cornell High-Cannabinoid Cannabis sativa Field Day at Cornell AgriTech in Geneva, NY.

OCM's Chief Equity Officer, Simone Washington and the Social and Economic Equity team provided key updates on statewide initiatives, reinforcing the agency's commitment to transparency and its support for cultivators across New York State.

The event featured interactive workshops, live demonstrations, and expert panels focused on advancing cannabis cultivation across New York State. Sessions highlighted controlled environment agriculture, soil health, disease management, genetics, post-harvest processing, and USDA field updates.
